WALANG GINAWA SI DUTERTE?

Aminado si Pres. Bongbong Marcos na marami pang kailangan kalkalin at imbestigahan kaugnay sa mga anomalya sa bilyun-bilyong pisong flood control projects.

Ayon kay PBBM, umabot na hanggang sa nakalipas na administrasyong Duterte ang mga naungkat nilang katiwalian sa flood control projects.

Alam daw ng dating pangulo ang tungkol sa flood control scam, pero wala raw ginawa si Duterte para panagutin ang mga sangkot dito kaya hinahabol nila lahat ngayon.

KABAONG SA GILID NG KALSADA?

TINGNAN: Imbes na karaniwang road o warning sign, kakaiba ang babalang ito na makikita sa bahagi ng Benguet-Nueva Vizcaya Road sa Ambuklao—isang kabaong!

Sa ilalim ng puting kabaong, may karatulang nagpapaalala sa mga motorista na ingatan ang nag-iisang buhay.

Magsilbi raw sana itong babala sa mga motorista na mag-ingat, sumunod sa batas trapiko at pahalagahan ang buhay habang nasa kalsada. | via GMA Regional TV One North Central Luzon

PBBM SA FLOOD CONTROL ISSUE

Mariing itinanggi ni Pangulong Ferdinand Marcos Jr. ang mga paratang na siya umano ang nasa likod ng mga iregularidad sa mga flood control project.

Sa isang press conference, sinabi ng Pangulo na kung hindi niya binanggit ang usapin sa kanyang State of the Nation Address (SONA), hindi umano ito mabibigyang-pansin.

“Kung hindi ko sinabi 'yung sinabi ko sa SONA, wala tayong pinag-uusapan na ganito. I'm the one who exposed all of this. And I'm the only one that has started to do anything about it,” pahayag ng Pangulo.

Iginiit din ni Marcos na sa kanyang administrasyon lamang nagsimula ang mga imbestigasyon, na aniya'y hindi nagawa ng mga nagdaang administrasyon.

“Bakit? Ang mga nakaraan ba na pangulo, may nakita ba kayong ginawang ganun? Meron ba silang kinulong? Meron ba silang ni-freeze na account? Meron ba silang mga imbestigasyon na ginawa? Wala. Sa akin lang. Tapos sasabihin, ako daw ang may kagagawan. Eh kung talaga raket ko 'yun, ba't ko sisirain 'yung raket ko? That makes absolutely no sense,” dagdag niya.

One of the internet's oldest Minions debates has finally been answered. 🍌

For years, fans have jokingly wondered whether the Minions—who are known for serving history's most despicable villains—ever worked for H*tler during World War II.

Now, Minions co-creator Pierre Coffin has finally addressed the viral question.

His response? "I think they were in that cave," referencing the franchise's established lore that the original Minions spent more than a century isolated in a cave.

He also clarified that the newer Minion tribes introduced in the latest film weren't part of "big history" either, putting the long-running meme to rest.

Sometimes, the internet asks the weirdest questions... and somehow, they eventually get official answers. 🍌😆

📷 MULTO SA KISAME

Sa unang tingin, mukha lang itong isang lumang family picture. Makikita ang isang matandang babae, isang mas batang babae, at dalawang batang lalaki na magkakasamang nakaupo sa paligid ng isang mesa. Tahimik ang eksena at walang bakas ng takot. Ngunit ilang segundo matapos mong pagmasdan ang litrato, mapapansin mo ang isang detalye na siyang dahilan kung bakit naging isa ito sa mga pinakasikat na "haunted photos" sa internet.

😰 ANG NAKAKATAKOT NA DETALYE

Sa kaliwang bahagi ng larawan ay may isang misteryosong pigura na tila nakabitin o bumabagsak nang pabaliktad mula sa kisame. Mahaba ang buhok nito at hindi makita ang mukha. Ayon sa viral na kuwento, wala raw kahit sino sa mga nasa larawan ang nakakita sa pigurang ito habang kinukunan ang litrato. Lumitaw lamang umano ito nang ma-develop ang film.

🌐 PAANO ITO NAGING VIRAL

Noong bandang 2013, nagsimulang kumalat ang larawan sa Reddit, Facebook, YouTube, at iba't ibang paranormal websites. Tinawag ito ng internet na The Cooper Family Falling Body Photo at mabilis na naging isa sa mga pinakakilalang creepy images online. Dahil dito, nagsulputan ang iba't ibang bersyon ng kuwento tungkol sa larawan.

👻 MGA KUWENTO AT TEORYA

May nagsabing bagong lipat lamang ang pamilya sa isang lumang bahay sa Texas. Ang iba naman ay nagsabing ang nakabiting pigura ay multo ng dating may-ari ng bahay, isang biktima ng pagpapakamatay, o isang masamang espiritu na nahuli lamang ng camera. Ngunit hanggang ngayon, wala ni isa sa mga kuwentong ito ang napatunayan at walang opisyal na rekord na sumusuporta sa mga ito.

🕵️ ANG IMBESTIGASYON

biktima ng pagpapakamatay, o isang masamang espiritu na nahuli lamang ng camera. Ngunit hanggang ngayon, wala ni isa sa mga kuwentong ito ang napatunayan at walang opisyal na rekord na sumusuporta sa mga ito.

🕵️ ANG IMBESTIGASYON

Nang siyasatin ng mga photo researchers ang larawan, wala silang nahanap na police reports, newspaper articles, o property records na nagpapatunay sa viral story. Makalipas ang ilang taon, may isang lalaki ang nagsabing isa siya sa dalawang batang nasa larawan at iginiit na ang litrato ay isang darkroom composite artwork na ginawa noong 1981. Gayunpaman, hindi rin ganap na napatunayan ang pahayag na iyon.

💬 Hanggang ngayon, nananatiling misteryo ang tunay na pinagmulan ng larawan. Para sa iyo ba gawa gawa lang ito o tunay na multo?

If the INC had hoped to trigger spontaneous mass protests against the government, it failed miserably. And if this was supposed to be a show of force, it was quite the opposite, exposing the limits of the INC's vaunted political clout.

In the end, the INC rally converted nobody who did not already subscribe to its views and its support for politicians who are firmly in the camp of former president Rodrigo Duterte, who is now detained in The Hague awaiting trial before the International Criminal Court for crimes against humanity.

While scrolling on TikTok, I came across a video that was deeply concerning.

Students have never been perfect. Every generation has had difficult learners, and teachers are trained not only to teach but also to guide and understand them.
But this situation is different.

The students openly insulted and threatened their teacher on video—and even posted it online. Those are no longer simple acts of disrespect; they are serious threats that should never be taken lightly.

At the same time, it's important to remember that a child's behavior is influenced by many factors, including family, peers, environment, and social media. Understanding where the behavior comes from, however, does not mean excusing it.

We can show compassion while still holding students accountable.

Guide the child. Correct the behavior. Protect the teacher. Intervene before a threat turns into a tragedy.

Traffic? Given na yan.
The solution is to wake up early para makaalis ng maaga.
Para hindi stressed ang utak mo bago dumating sa testing center.
Hirap hirap ng board exam tapos papahirapin mo pa sa traffic lang.
Also, normal lang ata yung halos walang tulog sa kaba or excitement the night before the exam. Haha
@engradriancelso
2.1 Positive Self-Talk
This is it pancit. Let's go sago!
Lahat ng pinagsikapan mo the past few months + college years ay masusubukan na sa board exam.
Normal lang din yung kaba, syempre nakataya yung time, effort, and budget eh.
Sayang naman kung babagsak lang.
Pro Tip: Remind yourself of the hard work you've put in, be excited to show them what you've got!

Over the years, even in the United States, a remarkable phenomenon has drawn the attention of many believers: rose petals on which sacred images appeared to be visible, especially images of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Jesus, saints, and symbols of the Passion.

One of the best-known moments came in 1999, when the case was brought before television cameras in the special “Signs from God: Science Tests Faith.” During that program, some of the petals were examined by Professor Michael Reid of the University of California, Davis, in an effort to understand whether the images were natural, man-made, or difficult to explain by ordinary means.

And this is what made the case so striking.

According to several testimonies and accounts, the figures did not seem to be simply painted on top of the petal like an ordinary drawing. Rather, they appeared as extremely fine marks impressed into the surface of the petal itself. That detail made the phenomenon even more fascinating for many observers and for countless faithful.

In the years that followed, the story continued to spread through the ministry of Brother Carmelo Cortez, a Filipino Catholic layman who was invited to various Catholic communities, including in the United States. During prayer gatherings and moments of devotion, many people reported seeing images appear on rose petals: Our Lady, Christ, the Cross, and other sacred signs.

Of course, the Church always calls us to prudence in cases like this. The Catholic faith is not built on extraordinary phenomena, but on Jesus Christ, the Gospel, the sacraments, and careful discernment. That is why we should not rush to turn every unusual sign into an absolute certainty.

And yet, this story continues to touch hearts.

Jul 05, 2026 12:34:57

Because a rose petal is fragile. Delicate. Almost weightless. And according to many witnesses, it was precisely on something so fragile that a sign appeared — a sign that called people back to prayer, to faith, and to the maternal presence of Mary.

Maybe that is the most beautiful part.

So often, God touches the human heart through small things.
A simple gesture, a fragile sign, a silent invitation.

And Mary, whenever she is present in the hearts and devotion of the faithful, never draws attention to herself for her own sake. She always leads us to her Son.

So, before these petals, the most important question is not only:

“How did this image form?”
The deeper question is:
“Is this sign leading me back to God?”

If even a single rose petal can make us stop, pray, reflect, and return to Christ, then that sign has already touched something deep within the soul.

Blessed Mother, always lead us to Jesus.

WHAT IS '764?'

"764" is a decentralized group...more of a subculture... that 'yong aim niya talaga is to nearly inflict harm. And it is really a very problematic issue precisely because it's difficult to find a loose connection...group of people with a similar aim.
Historically...the reason why they are called "764" is because of a use ng kanilang zip code...because the subculture is originated somewhere in Texas...so, mula doon nag-spread siya.

ILANG NETIZENS, NAKIUSAP NA IPA-DEPORT ANG MGA OFW NA KUMUYOG KAY USEC. CASTRO

Ilang mga netizens ang nanawagan na bigyan ng leksyon ang mga Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) na kumuyog kay Palace Press Officer Atty. Claire Castro.

Sa ilang post sa social media, makikita ang ilang panawagan ng mga netizens na i-deport ang mga nasabing OFW dahil hindi umano tama ang kanilang inasal.

"Sana e deport kayo ng Canadian Government dahil sa kabastusan niyo, hindi kayo nababagay diyan," sabi ng isang netizen.

"Napaka-unethical ng pinoy na ito, ganyan ba ugali ng mga DDS, sana ma-deport," ani netizen Jelmar.

"I-ready niyo na ang maleta niyo dahil ire-report namin kayo sa employer niyo dahil sa panghaharas niyo kay Usec Claire Castro sa Canada. Sincerely, a concerned OFW in Canada who witnessed your vile behavior kanina," wika pa ng isang netizen.

Sa ngayon ay wala pang tugon ang gobyerno sa pakiusap ng mga netizen.

Kahit saan, puro kawalanghiyaan ang dulot ng mga gabalatong ang brain at hindi na makapagisip ng matino na mangilan-ilang nabubuhay ng poot na mga DDSiyet!!! They were shamefully ignored and looked down by the Professional Filipino-Canadian sector.

Ironically, we sent Rodrigo Duterte to ICC, The Hague, with his violent behavior and his kawalanghiyaan at kabulastogan, and yet his evil influence remains with his screwed-mind followers. Disabusing this abhorrent Duterte legacy should be Priority 1 for this government, and for the next 2 governments, thereafter!

BUMISITA SA SIMBAHAN

Ibinahagi ni Vice Pres. Sara Duterte ang ilang larawan ng pagbisita niya sa Archdiocesan Shrine of St. Vincent Ferrer sa Bogo City, Cebu noong nakaraang linggo.

Ayon sa Bise, nagtirik siya ng kandila para ipanalangin ang kapayapaan ng bansa at ang kaligtasan ng mga Pilipino, gayundin ang tuloy-tuloy na pagbangon ng Bogo City mula sa nagdaang lindol.

Kasama rin daw sa kanyang mga dasal ang pag-uwi ng kanyang ama na si dating Pangulong Rodrigo Duterte na kasalukuyang nakakulong sa International Criminal Court (ICC).

BREAKING: GET OUT OF OUR CITY! Over 400 members of the Patriot Front neo-Nazi group march through Washington D.C. on the 4th of July, calling for the expulsion of immigrants and waving Confederate flags!

These people are truly vile…

While millions of people celebrated our unity and all the things that make America so wonderful, over 400 racist scumbag cowards wearing masks marched through the Capitol, waving the flag of treason and demanding the ethnic cleansing of immigrants from America.

Unsurprisingly, they were met with no pushback from Trump's police; no rubber bullets, no gas grenades, no nothing. Just freely allowing a far-right wing militia to parade around our beautiful city, pissing on the ideals upon which our nation was founded, while being too craven to show their faces.

A streamer with the group described it as a "total Aryan victory."

Apparently, these dickheads were planning on disrupting the 250th anniversary parade, but after the parade was cancelled, all they could do was wander around by themselves and terrorize the locals.

Can you imagine the reaction from Trump and Kash Patel if, say, the Democratic Socialists of America had held a rally in D.C., waving rose flags and extolling the virtues of diversity and love for our fellow men?

Make no mistake. The people in the highest level of Trump's government share the EXACT same beliefs as these Nazi bastards, and it's on us to defeat them and render them completely irrelevant.

The Beatles returned to London yesterday from New Delhi and got a screaming welcome from 20 girl fans.

Later George Harrison described the Manila Airport scene to newsmen.

"We we shoved and pushed around. There were a lot of vicious types with guns stirring it up. We were terrified," he said.

The incident at the airport followed the group's failure to attend a luncheon with the wife of Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos and several hundred children at the presidential palace. The group said they had never received the invitation.

In Saturday's referendum, voters decided on two issues - whether they agreed to abolish the so-called life annuity, such as Prime Minister Robert Fica (Smer-SD), and whether they agree to renew the Office of the Special Prosecutor's Office and the National Criminal Agency.

The petition for the referendum was initiated by the non-parliamentary party Democrats. She asked three questions in it, but the question of the request to shorten the election period was not ultimately the subject of a referendum. SR President Peter Pellegrini did not betray the question because he said he was contrary to the Constitution of the Slovak Republic.

'KUNG DIRETSONG MAKASAGOT, MAS MAGIGING MADALI ANG PROSESO'

Naniniwala si Pres. Bongbong Marcos na mas mapapadali ang proseso sa impeachment trial kung personal na haharap sa Senado si Vice Pres. Sara Duterte.

Kung ang Pangulo raw ang nasa posisyon ng Bise, hihimukin niya pa ang kanyang mga abogado na dumalo sa paglilitis.

"Kaya ko namang sagutin, eh 'di sagutin natin," personal na pananaw ni PBBM.

'KAPAG LUMAGO HINDI NA HIHINTO'

Umakyat na si Pinay tennis star Alex Eala sa bago niyang career-high na world no. 28 sa Women's Tennis Association (WTA) live rankings ngayong Linggo, July 5.

Kasunod ito ng makasaysayan niyang panalo kontra sa defending champion na si Iga Swiatek ng Poland sa Wimbledon nitong Sabado, July 4.

May pagkakataon pa si Eala na umangat at makapasok sa Top 25 kung manalo siya kontra kay Jasmine Paolini ng Italy sa Round of 16 sa Lunes, July 6.

Most Filipinos know Alex Eala as the face of Philippine tennis.

But here's a piece of sports trivia many have forgotten: decades before Eala was born, the Philippines already had two tennis stars who regularly battled the world's best on the biggest courts.

Their names were Felicisimo Ampon and Raymundo Deyro—a golden tandem that helped make the Philippines one of Asia's tennis powers during the 1940s and 1950s.

At a time when international travel was far more difficult than today, the two Filipinos journeyed across Europe and North America to compete in Grand Slam tournaments against some of the sport's greatest legends.

Ampon, nicknamed the "Mighty Mite," became an international sensation because of his remarkable size. Standing just around five feet tall and weighing barely 115 pounds, he routinely defeated much larger opponents using speed, precision, and relentless court coverage.

His résumé remains one of the finest ever assembled by a Filipino tennis player. He reached the quarterfinals of the French Open in both 1952 and 1953, advanced to the fourth round of the US Championships four times, won the prestigious Wimbledon Plate in 1948, and captured the 1950 Pan American Tennis Championship after defeating American star Bill Talbert.

Over nearly three decades, Ampon also became the Philippines' greatest Davis Cup player, finishing with a national record 40 overall victories.

Jul 05, 2026 17:11:44

Deyro, meanwhile, was every bit as accomplished. The steady baseliner reached the fourth round of the French Open in 1953 and the third rounds of both Wimbledon and the US Championships. He represented the Philippines in a record 37 Davis Cup ties and remained a mainstay of the national team until he was 43 years old.

Ampon and Deyro shared the greatest rivalry in Philippine tennis history. Their frequent career battles included Ampon winning the 1951 Swedish Hard Court Championship and Deyro taking the 1953 Oslo International title.

But the pair produced one of Philippine sports' greatest moments at the 1958 Asian Games in Tokyo.

Deyro defeated Ampon in an all-Filipino men's singles final to win the gold medal, guaranteeing the Philippines both gold and silver. They then reunited in doubles to capture another gold, completing one of the country's most dominant performances in Asian tennis history.

Together, they even defeated Japanese stars Kosei Kamo and Atsushi Miyagi in Davis Cup competition—the same duo that would later become US National Championships doubles champions.

Despite these remarkable achievements, both men gradually faded from public memory as Philippine tennis declined during the professional Open Era. As tennis became increasingly expensive and globalized after 1968, the country struggled to produce players capable of consistently competing at the highest level.

Today, Alex Eala is deservedly inspiring a new generation of Filipino tennis fans.

But perhaps her greatest contribution is reminding the nation that she isn't writing the first chapter of Philippine tennis history.

She's writing its long-awaited sequel—a story first begun by two forgotten Filipino heroes who proved, decades ago, that the Philippines belonged on the world's biggest tennis stage.

'I'M THE ONE WHO EXPOSED ALL OF THIS'

Pumalag si Pres. Bongbong Marcos sa mga kritiko na nag-uugnay sa kanya sa flood control scandal at nananawagan para bumaba na siya sa puwesto.

Giit ng Pangulo, siya pa nga ang unang nagbunyag sa naturang scandal sa State of the Nation Address (SONA) niya noong 2025.

"Kung talagang raket ko 'yun, bakit ko sisirain ang raket ko?" buwelta ni PBBM sa mga bumabatikos.

PANOORIN: Sinagot ni Pangulong Bongbong Marcos ang mga nagsasabing siya ang may kagagawan umano sa mga anomalya sa flood control projects.

"Kung hindi ko sinabi 'yung sinabi ko sa SONA, wala tayong pinag-uusapan na ganito... tapos sasabihin ako raw ang may kagagawan. Eh, kung talagang raket ko 'yun bakit ko sisirain 'yung raket ko? It makes absolutely no sense," sagot ng pangulo.
